

Privacy Statement

The General Data Protection Regulation comes into effect on 25th May 2018.

Accordingly, in those rare instances where GOT responds directly to expressions of interest and/or enquiries, any contact data or personal information accruing will not be shared or sold on.

Further, such information from requests to GOT shall not be retained for the purposes of marketing, unsolicited offers or spurious contact.

The GOT website is professionally managed by an external consultancy company - Concept Studio – and this includes oversight of site security.

You have the right to be ‘forgotten’ – and request your contact details be deleted.
